Free Prisoner: A Philosophical Zero-Waste Fashion Brand

About Us:

Free Prisoner represents the human struggle for freedom within a constrained society. Our name symbolizes the quest for authenticity and self-expression in a world that often places us in boxes. We believe fashion is more than aesthetics; it's a reflection of identity, sustainability, and social responsibility.

Zero-Waste Design:

At Free Prisoner, we create fashion without waste. Our zero-waste patterns maximize fabric usage, resulting in less than 1% material waste. We exclusively use natural and compostable materials like organic cotton and hemp. This approach aligns with our mission to contribute to a circular economy and a cleaner planet.

The New Collection:

Our latest collection explores the themes of rust and rest, inspired by reflections on impermanence and the transition to adulthood. Rust symbolizes the beauty of natural change and imperfection, drawing inspiration from wabi-sabi. It reflects how routines and patterns shape us, while also revealing the strength and beauty that transformation can bring. The collection tells a story of acceptance, self-expression, and embracing personal growth.

What We Believe:

Free Prisoner sees fashion as a tool for change. By producing our garments on-demand and locally in the Netherlands, we eliminate overproduction and waste. Our philosophy goes beyond style: we strive for a more sustainable world, celebrating imperfection and transformation. We invite you to join us on this journey toward a conscious and meaningful wardrobe.
